

Some things just don't fly

The teamsters appoint their friends in trucking and other non-airline industries to negotiate Ramp & Fleet contracts. Then, when it comes time for contract enforcement, the nearest teamster local may be several states away. Within that remote teamster local, airline workers are the minority.

In the IAM, you elect leaders from your own work classification.

You have nearby, local representation. Fifty-four IAM local lodges exclusively represent airline workers.

